LBJ Urges Assistance Not Be Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson urged the world's developed nations today to resist the temptation to cut back their assistance to the have-nots of the globe.
"This would be a tragic end to two decades of commitment, of trial and error and, I think, magnificent achievement," the President said.
Johnson was a surprise speaker at the opening session of the combined annual meetings of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank.
The meetings have assembled finance ministers from the majority of the non-Communist nations.
"We simply cannot turn our backs on the majority of our fellow human beings," Johnson said.
By sensible cooperation, the President said, it will be possible to increase world income five per cent per year over the next five years. The alternative, he said, is to allow uncontrolled forces to determine the progress with the likely result that growth would sink to three per cent.
"Let us not fall to be wise," Johnson said.
The President's remarks, while addressed directly to finance ministers and central bank heads from scores of other nations, seemed indirectly aimed at Congress, which this year is cutting foreign aid funds to the lowest point since World War II.
"The more we move together," he said, "the more each of us will be able to advance the economy of our own people."
Johnson addressed the joint gathering before a speech by bank's president, Robert S. McNamara.
McNamara proposed a five-year plan of increased lending in Africa, Latin America and Asia. He said the bank's loans should double during the plan.
McNamara said the new plan would include a broadening of the bank's past emphasis on South Asia—India and Pakistan — to the other underdeveloped areas of the world.
In his first speech prepared for the board of governors of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the former secretary of defense singled out Indonesia and the United Arab Republic Egypt as countries with great need for help, but where little has been done in the past.

Governors of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund—interlocking groups involving many of the same men—convened today for week-long annual meetings. Many joint sessions are scheduled.
The World Bank makes or guarantees loans to help improve production, standards of living and international trade. The IMF provides short-term loans to governments to help maintain the stability of international exchange. Both were organized in 1944.
Pierre-Paul Schweitzer, chairman of the executive board and managing director of the IMF, reported to the meeting that the world may be moving toward a balance in international payments—but at the expense of reduced aid to developing nations.

Davis Raps Jailing at Hot Springs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Lynn A. Davis, the Republican candidate for secretary of state, said Saturday that the jailing of his campaign aide at Hot Springs "clearly illustrates the need for constructive change in our state government."
Davis' aide, George R. Hazendorff, 24, was arrested Friday on charges of improper use of a loudspeaker and failure to show a state license on a motor vehicle. He was released on $58,30 bond.
Davis said he believed the arrest was "harassment by cronies" of his opponent, Democratic incumbent Kelly Bryant.
COMMISSION
(from page one)
The state board has been involved in a hassle over the naming of third members to county commissions for more than one year.
The Republicans have three members and the Democrats six on the state board, resulting in vote control by the Democrats, who are legally minority party.
Arkansas defines the majority party as that of the governor. Democrats, during several meetings of the state board,

Labor Backs All Democrats But Two

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) Saturday endorsed all Democratic candidates in the Nov. 5 general election except two.
The committee took no action on Bill Alexander in the 1st District congressional race or on state Land Commissioner Sam Jones.
Alexander said that labor fought too hard for his primary opponent, Jack Flies, to endorse him in the general election.
Three of the candidates spoke to the labor committee. They were Marion H. Crank, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee; Bill Wells, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, and Hardy Croxton, Democratic nominee for Congress from the 3rd District.
"You'll never hear me say, 'What do I owe labor?' Crank said in referring to a statement attributed to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. "You won't hear me say, 'What do I owe the educator,' I owe every one of them the very fact that I am standing here today. I owe the many other groups throughout the state of Arkansas that have supported me in this campaign."

J. Bill Becker, president of the state AFL-CIO, said it was well to look at a candidate's supporters because labor has found some of the strongest antilabor people in the state in Rockefeller's camp. He named Cass Hough of Rogers, president of Daisy-Haddon Manufacturing Co., and Peter Joers of Dierks Forest, Inc.
COPE also appeal for support of the national Democratic ticket of Vice President Hubert Humphrey and his running mate, Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine.
Becker called for support of the ticket, but conceded that some labor members would support the third party presidential bid of George Wallace.

have elected third members only to see Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller veto them, claiming that they weren't members or representatives of the Republican party.
The Ellis case stems from a board meeting during the summer. The Republicans are also challenging in the court 15 third members named by Democrats at a state board meeting earlier this month.

Equal Time Bill Could Come to Vote

By ROBERT A. HUNT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The bill to exempt televised Humphrey-Nixon-Wallace debates from equal time requirements could get a House vote this week, but the outlook for such confrontations is dim indeed.
The bill is on the House calendar, subject to clearance from the Rules Committee which has scheduled a meeting on the issue for Thursday.
But House members close to the situation doubt that the debate would materialize even if Congress passes the bill in its present form.

Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon has said he would debate Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey if Congress suspends the equal time requirement. But he has flatly rejected taking part in a three-way affair with third party candidate George C. Wallace.
Humphrey has said he would go along with the three-man format.

The House Commerce Committee modified a Senate-passed bill to specify that the exemption would apply only to debates which provided all major candidates "opportunity for equivalent appearances."

Rep. J. J. Pickle, D-Tex., author of that language before it was modified, said his original wording would have permitted the exemption only on programs with equivalent appearances instead of those with opportunity for equal appearances by the trio.
"My clear intent was to allow a three-way debate or no debate at all," Pickle said.

Seasonal Weather Mild, Cool

Seasonal weather of mild days and cool nights is expected to continue in Arkansas through Tuesday with no rain fall in sight.
A high pressure system that covers most of the nation today is pushing cool air in the state and keeping precipitation at a minimum around the southern portion of the country.
No rainfall was reported in Arkansas over the 24-hour period that ended at 7:30 a.m. today.
Low temperatures reported around the state this morning ranged from 46 degrees at Fayetteville to 59 at Pine Bluff and Little Rock.

Four Persons Died on State Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An Associated Press count shows four persons died in traffic accidents on the Arkansas highways during the weekend.
The Associated Press death toll began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.
State Police identified the victims as Leonard Person, 42, of Newport; Derle Campbell, 3, of Little Rock; John Paul Fox, 39, of Hot Springs; and Jay Rule, 26, of Berryville.
Officers said Person was killed Saturday in a two-vehicle collision on mile north of Newport on U.S. 67. Authorities said the child, son of Mrs. Emma Jones of Little Rock, was struck and killed Saturday by a truck in Little Rock.
State Police said Fox died in a two-vehicle collision Friday night about six miles east of Forrest City. Rule, an announcer for Berryville radio station KTHS, was killed Saturday night in a collision between his motorcycle and a car on U.S. 62 in Green Forest.

Ex-governors at the Crank Open House

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three former Arkansas governors were among the guests Sunday at an open house honoring Democratic gubernatorial nominee Marion Crank and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark.
The three were Orval E. Faubus, Sid McMath and Ben Laney.
Crank, in answer to a question, said he had not had any polls made concerning the governor's race. He said, however, he has every reason to believe that he is doing as well, if not better, than Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.
Fulbright, who is opposed by Charles Bernard of Earle, was asked if he was "running

Thinks Cuts in Education Shortsighted

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., says cuts in the Fulbright program of international exchange in education are "short-sighted."

Ex-governors at the Crank Open House

Fulbright also said he didn't approve of the way the United States had allocated its resources.
"I'm for a strong military," Fulbright said Saturday, "but I'm not in favor of turning everything over to the military. I have no objection to our space program. But we've spent something like $32 billion on it in the last six or seven years. I think that's too much money."
Fulbright said he felt the exchange program could be revived "if the war ends and interest is again toward this program, which has proven itself to be in our own best interests."

"That is a very trite phrase," he said. "I have just been doing what I would normally do in a campaign — meeting as many people as possible and shaking as many hands."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that all the 20-odd new programs have had their premieres, the public will have time to take a look at the re- turning television series to see what, if any, changes have been wrought over the summer.

"The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour"—or as they would have it, "The Smothers Comedy Brothers Show"—was back Sunday night on CBS for its third season, as full of contemporary comment as usual and perhaps with the comedy in a little shorter supply.

The jokes, in fact, seemed to hang primarily on the fact that both brothers had sprouted mustaches and that Dickie had let his hair grow.

The show opened—invariably—with a satiric jibe at political conventions. It was followed by a song by the two stars outlining not only the woes of the nation but their own censorship problems.

Cass Elliott of the musical group the Mamas and the Papas, a guest star, first sang a grim song about a California earthquake illustrated by pictures of crumbling buildings. Harry Belafonte was, as usual, tremendously effective in a couple of musical numbers. And Pat Paulsen, continuing his mock presidential campaign, fired sharp political wisecracks in the direction of all three real aspirants.

Then, also on CBS, came "Mission: Impossible," saving a Balkan kingdom for the good guys. Everything was as usual—lots of gimmicks and disguises—Barbara Bain was made up to look about 80 in this one.

Nothing has changed on ABC's "The FBI"—not even its preoccupation with gun play and fist fights.

Jackie Gleason returned Saturday with his regular cast in- tact for a frolicsome musical edition of "The Honeymooners."

There will be fewer of those this year, but the Great One was in good form.

"The Don Rickles Show" had its ABC premiere Friday night, a half-hour without much form but apparently designed to per- mit the star to indulge in his specialty—hurling barbed re- marks in a good natured way. Rickles worked hard; his straight man, Pat McCormick, laughed a lot, and Danny Thom- as came along to help. Nothing worked out very well for Rick- les who is funnier as a guest on someone else's show than on his own.

Robert Stack appeared in the first of his quota of "The Name of the Game" episodes on NBC. Gene Barry, the third star of the series, will have his starring debut next Friday. Stack plays a crusading editor of a crime magazine and in the first show was busily finding and then trying to protect a vital witness in a mafia killing. It was a sus- penseful, well produced show al- though along familiar lines. Stack invested the role with the same humorless intensity that made his Elliot Ness the nemesis of Chicago bootleggers.

Yacht Sinks at Christening

SHEFFIELD, England (AP) — Townsfolk, officials and a Salvation Army band turned out Sunday for the christening of the 62-foot steel yacht that Joe Phillips took five years to build for a voyage around the world.

A bottle of rum was smashed across her bow and the 26-ton vessel was lowered into the wa- ter.

It sank.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flaherty of McCaskill, Arkansas announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nita Sue, to Harold B. Epton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Elgie Epton and the late Fred Epton of Nashville.

The wedding will take place at 4 p.m., November 2 at Avery's Chapel Methodist Church.

Miss Flaherty is a graduate of Blevins High School and has received her secretarial certificate from Henderson State College. Mr. Epton is a graduate of Nashville High School and has served in the U.S. Air Force for four years.

No cards will be sent but all friends and relatives are invited.

Teachers in New York End Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Most of New York City's 1.1 million public school children returned to classes today after a three-week strike by unionized teachers, but the agreement which settled the dispute was labeled unacceptable by the head of the Brooklyn school district which touched off the strike.

The Rev. C. Herbert Oliver, chairman of the local governing board in the Ocean Hill-Brownsville district, said "we cannot comply with" an agreement between the Board of Education and the Teacher's Union.

The agreement he referred to, ordering back to Ocean Hill-Brownsville 110 teachers the district says it doesn't want, was approved Sunday night by the striking teachers.

Oliver did not make clear the effect of the local board's unwillingness to comply with the agreement, but indicated the board might set up its own schools.

A number of Negro teachers and students at a junior high school in the Brooklyn district walked out this morning. Some of the students said their teachers had told them to leave the school.

Within a few minutes, however, the teachers and pupils reentered the building at the urging of a community governing board official and a number of parents.

The officials said the pupils "got scared" by the presence of police in the building, adding: "They've got them in the boiler room and checking out the halls."

Oliver also expressed anger over the heavy concentration of policemen inside and outside the junior high school.

"Is this Czechoslovakia?" he asked. "This is an armed camp. We don't need them."

Hippies Don't Like New Law

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Holly- wood's hippies don't like the new antiloitering ordinance aimed at keeping them off Sun- set Strip.

About 500 young demonstra- tors marched along the strip Saturday night carrying signs criticizing the City Council and county supervisors for passing the laws. There were no inci- dents or arrests.

The ordinance was passed af- ter merchants on Sunset Boule- vard complained that hippies were driving away their cus- tomers. The law makes it a mis- demeanor to "unreasonably" loiter on any county street or sidewalk.

A similar law will go into ef- fect in Los Angeles early next month.

WR, Crank Debate Set October 11

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The statewide television debate between Marion H. Crank and Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is scheduled for Oct. 11, the candidates announced Saturday.

The joint announcement said that because of time-clearance problems, it was possible at this time to schedule only one debate. Three debates had been agreed on previously.

The telecast will be from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., providing the "largest single audience in the history of the state," the an- nouncement said.

According to the format, Crank, the Democratic gub- ernatorial nominee, will make the first 12-minute opening state- ment, and Rockefeller is to fol- low with his opening statement. Rockefeller will make the first closing 2½-minute statement with Crank following him.

The rest of the program will be for questions from a panel composed of persons chosen by the television stations involved in consultation with representa- tives of Sigma Delta Chi, the professional journalism society.

Each candidate will be limi- ted to 1½ minutes to answer a question and his opponent will be allowed 1½ minutes to an- swer the same question. The panelists will alternate ques- tions between the two can- didates.

Subjects to be debated will be prison reform, law and order, welfare and rehabilitation services, educational programs and financing Arkansas educa- tion, industrial and economic development, regulation of utili- ties, bond issues, pledging the full faith and credit of the state and election reform.

President Theodore Roose- velt was the first to have the name White House for the ex- ecutive mansion engraved on his stationery.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young peo- ple, their problems and pleas- ures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

Dear Helen: Seems to me our television station has borrowed its program titles straight from an advice column—and in the proper order. First comes "Dating Games," then "Newlyweds," "Dream House," "Truth or Con- sequences," and finally, "Divorce Court." — MIDWEST MATRON

Dear Matron: How about that! ... And how about this? Tom Arden in the Sacramento BEE writes, "Programming at Chan- nel 13 brought this sequence of movie showings for the week: Monday, 'Holiday in Havana'; Tuesday, 'Father Is a Bachelor'; Wednesday, 'Emergency Wedding Thursday, 'Born Yesterday'; Friday, 'Because of Him.'"

(And then, on Saturday—too late — "Get Smart.") — H.

Dear Helen: Here's another whyohwhy.

Our 21-year-old son is a zoom, dart, whoosh, varcom driver. He says he has complete control at all times, but he scares me so much I won't go in his sports car.

Yet our 12-year old daughter reacts the same way to my completely safe driving, and keeps pointing out how her brother would do it, if HE were behind the wheel. She actually comes home shaking from a drive with me; and I am too, af- ter all her indrawn breaths and clinging to the door handle.

Do you suppose she got this from the men in our family who are always making snide re- marks about "dumb" dame dri- vers"? — NOT THAT BAD

Dear N.T.B.: Could be. Then again, you might be a "safe" dri- ver because you are unsure and there fore slow. If you aren't con- fortably behind the wheel, pass- engers — especially your hus- band and kids — sense this and get tense, which of course makes you all the more nervous.

Let your daughter know you're in charge here, and if she doesn't like your driving she can walk. — H.

Dear Helen: My husband and I have a darling little girl. Due to circumstances beyond our con- trol, she was born six weeks be- fore we were married. Now we have been married three years and she still has my maiden name.

Is there anyway we can get her name changed without costly legal fees? She is my husband's daughter, and we can't see why we should have to adopt her, as I've been told. — MRS. J. M., California.

Dear Mrs. M.: Write to the Di- vision of Vital Statistics, State De- partment of Health, at your State Capitol. You'll find the name change is simpler than you think, re- quiring only affidavits and a little paper work, no legal fees.

Note to readers: Laws differ in various states, but this rule stands: Before you hire a lawyer on any problem concerning birth records, contact your Division of Vital Statistics first. — H.

Dear Helen: A new friend in- vited us to her home for dinner. She served a wonderful shrimp dish. I asked her for the recipe, as I'm a newlywed and need all the help I can get. She looked at me as if I were a peasant and changed the subject. Later some one told me you don't ask for recipes because it makes you look "small town." Is that right? — NEW IN THE CITY

Dear New: The hostess who isn't complimented at a request for her recipe is just too darn uppity for my taste. Perhaps your friend had her shrimp dish catered. — H.

Greek King Loses Power to Army

By PHILIP DOPOULOS

Associated Press Writer

ATHENS (AP) — The army- imposed regime of strongman Premier George Papadopoulos won approval of a 94 per cent majority, and claimed today the vote represented "unreserved support of the government and the revolution."

The claim was made by the government's chief spokesman, Byron Stamatopoulos, at a post- midnigh news conference.

The constitution, which be- comes effective immediately, drastically reduces the power of self-exiled King Constantine and establishes a strong executive. It also sets up unprecedented measures to curb political cor- ruption which the Papadopoulos regime contends was rampant under elected Greek govern- ments of the past.

Adoption of a new constitution is just a first step toward return to a parliamentary system such as the one swept out of office by a bloodless army coup April 21, 1967. The next step would be general elections, but no date has been set.

Marital law and press control continue in the country, and about 2,100 leftists remain im- prisoned on two Aegean Sea is- lands. At least 12 former depu- ties or politicians also are still under house arrest or in exile in rural areas.

St. Louis Preparing for Series

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Richie Allen and the St. Louis Cardinals are ready for the next stop. Only the Cardinals are sure where it will be.
St. Louis prepared for its World Series date with Detroit with an 11-1 romp over Houston Sunday that helped erase memories of a mediocre September for the National League champions.
Allen, reportedly unhappy and anxious to be traded, walloped three home runs including a grand slam and drove in seven runs in Philadelphia's 10-3 rout of the New York Mets.

In other National League action on Sunday's final day, Atlanta nipped Los Angeles 2-1, Chicago shaded Pittsburgh 5-4 and Cincinnati shut out San Francisco 3-0.

In the American League, New York edged Boston 4-3, Washington nipped Detroit 3-2, Minnesota topped Oakland 5-4 and the Chicago White Sox nipped California 7-6. Cleveland and Baltimore were not scheduled.

The Cardinals packed nine runs into the second inning—three of them scoring on a single by Orlando Cepeda.

Cepeda, Tim McCarver and Mike Shannon had two hits apiece in the rally. The defeat spelled a 10th place finish for the Astros—the first time they've ended in the basement.

The Cards' explosion of runs matched their season's high and ended a lengthy slump. In fact, since clinching the pennant on Sept. 15, St. Louis had not managed more than five runs in any game. They concluded the month of September with an 11-13 record.

Allen, who struck out a record 160 times and finished the season with a .263 average, murdered the Mets with his barrage of homers.

His first tied the score in the sixth. Then, after Clay Dalrymple hit a two-run shot in the seventh, Allen connected in the eighth and again, with the bases loaded, in the ninth. The three shots gave him 33 homers and 90 runs batted in for the year.

"A change of scenery would do me good," he said.

The Pirates made six errors and it cost them a share of fifth place as the Cubs pushed across a run in the ninth inning to beat them.

Chicago managed just three hits—one of them Ron Santo's two-run homer. Bob Moose's throwing error in the ninth allowed Jim Hickman to score the winning run.

Matty Alou went 0-for-4 and finished the season with a .332 batting average, three points lower than Cincinnati's Pete Rose. It marked the first time since 1963 that a Pirate has failed to win the batting crown.

Rose was 1-for-3 and finished at .335 as Jim Maloney's shot-hitter gave Cincinnati its victory over San Francisco.

It was the third straight shut-out for Maloney, 17-10. He allowed only a sixth inning single by Bobby Bonds and Dave Marshall's single in the seventh.

Hank Aaron tied a major league record with his 29th home run as the Braves beat the Dodgers and grabbed fifth place.

AM&N Loses to Lincoln University

FEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Lincoln University threw up a stout defense and took advantage of mistakes to grab a 21-8 victory over Arkansas AM&N Saturday night.

Lincoln took advantage of two AM&N fumbles after driving 99 yards for a first half touchdown. Lincoln connected for 305 yards of total offense, scoring twice in the second half.

125 Yards in Penalties Hurt Bobcats

By RALPH HOUTON
Star Sports Writer

In more ways than one, the Hope Bobcats have reason to forget last Friday night's 13-6 loss to the Smackover Bucks of 4-AA East. If they wanted to, they could come up with plenty of excuses, but they aren't.

Of course, Smackover has a reputation in these parts of having rough teams which occasionally have been known to set records in penalty yardage. Yet it was our Bobcats who racked up the 125 penalty yards this time, and some of it is still in question. The Bucks probably set an all-time low with their 40 yards given to infractions, but it must be said that Smackover did play cleanly under their new head coach Don Crews.

However, with all other things aside, the Bobcats did lose the football game. It was a crucial game for Hope to win, yet the team was rarely able to conjure up some emotional drive to fight back. The turning point in the 13-6 loss was likely Smackover's first touchdown, which was scored cheaply after a fumbled punt at the Bobcat 15 a few seconds before the half.

It was reported from Smackover sources that their first TD came on a 68-yard march, but that writer had better take a close look at the films this week. The actual scoring play was a good call, with QB David Chenoweth firing a flat pass to halfback Calvin Holly, who sped 17 yards to paydirt on a third and seven situation.

But it was this score immediately before the half, which wiped out the Bobcats' 6-0 lead, that shook the momentum away from Hope, never to be regained. Then when the Cats took the second half kickoff and were unable to move, the Bucks marched 68 yards to pad their margin on the second TD. This score shook Hope back to reality, and several rushed through to block the point-after attempt.

Then David Wilkie kicked the ground on the kickoff, and the very short kick was returned to the Hope 49 by Larry McWilliams. This was good field position, and three runs gave the Cats fourth and inches at the Smackover 41. Larry Massanelli sneaked to the 40 for the first down, and things seemed to be going our way. What a laugh.

That wasn't in sarcasm, for the major penalty virus struck in full force. Offensive holding was called five yards behind the line of scrimmage, and Mr. Referee proceeded to take a little journey which rewarded Hope with a first and thirty situation from Hope's 40. Massanelli threw a quickie pass to John Kemp for 12 yards to the Buck 48, then Larry ran the bootleg beautifully down to the 37 for a gain of eleven yards.

It wasn't allowed, and a clipping violation set us back to the Hope 45 with 2nd and 25. On the next play Smackover intercepted, as if to remove us from our grief, but that series had about taken it out of the Bobcats. The relatively fresh defense pushed the Buckaroos back this time, and Benny Brian had to punt on 4th and 15.

He got off a short boot to the Hope 38, but Smackover got their 80th chance on another 15-yarder chalked off on the Bobcats, giving the Bucks first and ten at midfield. They drove on down to the Bobcat 35, where they punted on fourth and five instead of gambling.

So the Cats took over at their own 15 and 9:21 showing, and embarked on a last-ditch drive. Massanelli bootlegged for one first down and Gary Wheelington picked up another in a short-yardage situation several plays later. With 3rd and six on the Hope 45, the Bobcats sent Jim Alford on the fullback trap for 17 yards on two plays to the Smackover 38.

On 3rd and one from the 37, though, QB Massanelli was nailed for a loss at the 44, which brought up a last chance down and eight yards to go. Under obvious pressure, Massanelli put a Denny McLain fastball into David Still's abdomen at the 24 for the crucial first down which wasn't.

It wasn't, because fifteen more yards were skipped off for an ineligible receiver downfield. This call was the most objectionable of the entire game, because Smackover was given the ball at the Hope 41. The rules state that this penalty carries a loss of down, say from third to fourth, but it is indefinite as to the ruling when the play in question picks up a first down.

Anyway, Smackover gained possession with 5:33 left, having experienced nearly every possible good break. They consumed time while driving to the Hope 30, where a punt to the corner pushed the Bobcats back to the four. Hope punched out one first down, but Randy Burson intercepted and returned ten yards to the Bobcat 12 with 1:18 left on the scoreboard.

That same earlier mentioned source quoted Smackover as driving to the Hope one as the final buzzer sounded, but when the clock read 0:00, I saw the ball resting on the Hope six. A loss is a loss, but they also gave themselves 278 yards total offense. After reviewing tapes of the broadcast of the game, there is no way the Bucks could have gotten 278 yards, even if they counted the few plays called back for various reasons. Bless them, they gave Hope 306 yards. I only gave them 301.

Let's just drop that subject, as soon as other cridits are out of the way. Ronny Brown turned in another fine game on defense, and his work with fellow offensive guard Larry McWilliams was beautiful on the entirely successful fullback trap plays. Jim Alford played his usual fine game while still nursing a hip bruise, and the defensive secondary did their best job covering receivers so far this season.

They have to look to Malvern this Friday, however, as the annual roustabout with the Leopards is the first 4-AA West divisional contest for the Bobcats. Malvern, 1-0 in the division and 1-2 overall, lost a heartbreaker Little Rock Catholic 13-10 last week. Leading 10-6, Malvern punted with 16 seconds left. Only the snap went over the punter's head, and Catholic recovered at the Leopard one-yard line. The Rockets scored on the last play on first down, making it a real heartbreaker for Malvern on their home field.

Tonight the Hope "B" team tries to increase its mark to 3-1 against the Stamp Yellowjackets in Stamps at 7:30 p.m., in what should be a tight game. The "B" Lizards walloped Nashville 39-0 last Monday night. Meanwhile the remainder of the Bobcat squad will work over the mistakes of the Smackover loss, after seeing the film of the game and receiving the scouting report on Malvern.

Tech Blasts Texas, TCU Beats Iowa

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas Tech. Coach J. T. King had this theory about the University of Texas.
"I told my kids excuse me, men, that if we held Chris Gilbert to 125 yards rushing and one touchdown we can beat Texas," King said.

The Red Raiders own the Southwest Conference lead today because King's theory worked perfectly Saturday night as Tech overwhelmed the Longhorns 31-22 in a sizzling fray before a record Jones Stadium crowd of 50,167.

Gilbert, the sensational slippery ghost of many a touchdown run, could gouge but 29 yards out of a stout Tech line that keyed on him. Gilbert got that one touchdown—one six yards run, his longest of the night.

"We weren't going to let him go wide—we had enough of that guy last year," King said. "We told our ends follow Gilbert wherever he went," he said.
King said, "Another important factor was our domination of the kicking game. I believe we'll keep Larry Alford on scholarship at least another week."

King was jokingly referring to Alford's tremendous punt returns—one for 84 yards and a touchdown and another for 49 yards to set up another score. Texas Coach Darrell Royal said "I think it is obvious the breakdown came in the kicking game. We had two punt run backs and a blocked field goal," that's the story.

King said Texas quarterback-punter Bill Bradley was outbooting his coverage.
"Alford just popped up the middle and got some good blocks," he said.

He said "The secret to our offense was the ability to run against their goal line defense. Houston couldn't do it."
Roger Freeman scored twice for Tech on short runs and caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Joe Mattulich for another score.
While Tech and Texas settled the first issue of the conference campaign, the other league members split even with inter-sectional opposition.

Conference members, coming off its worst inter-sectional showing ever in 1967, now have a 5-3 record against outside competition.
SMU continued its record-setting aerial circus but Ohio State stole the show with a 35-14 victory.

Mustang quarterback Chuck Hixson completed 37 of 69 passes for 417 yards. All three figures are SWC records. Flanker Jerry Levis caught a schoolprecord 15 passes for 160 yards.

But the Buckeyes tore into the Ponies for a 14-0 first quarter lead to pop the bubble SMU has been keeping aloft since last week's surprising win over Auburn.

The Aggies somewhat squared accounts with Louisiana teams in its decisive victory over the Green Wave. Losers last week to LSU, the Ags sent Larry Stagent tearing through Tulane's defenses for three touchdowns.

Mathews Is Activated by Tigers

By LARRY PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP)—Busy with crucial decisions to activate slugger Eddie Mathews and restore power hitter Al Kaline to the starting line-up, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith hardly noticed the Tigers' 3-2 loss to Washington Sunday in the last game of the regular American League season.

Smith's first words to newsmen in the Tigers' dressing room after the loss were, "The shortstop will be Mickey Stanley."

"Now don't ask me why. That's all," he said abruptly, his mind occupied fully with the coming first game of the World Series on Wednesday against the Cardinals at St. Louis.

"This is not done for sentiment to get Al Kaline into the line-up," said Smith, "I want you to understand that, I —Hope (Ark.) Star photos

Stymied by penalties and a dedicated Smackover team the Hope Bobcats just couldn't push across the goal line Friday night. The Bobcats (in white) and the Buckaroos are mixing it up in the action scenes above.

just want to get an extra bat in the line-up."
The move will give the Tigers the benefit of Kaline's hitting talent in the game. The 291 slugger will play right field in place of Jim Northrup, who will move to center.

Smith said he would rather have Stanley play short because of his hitting ability, instead of either Ray Oyler or Tom Matchick, both weak hitters this year.

Lions Pull Upset Over Green Bay

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Jones boy has New York buzzing again and a couple of Smiths are hitting it big for Baltimore. But Green Bay has had its fill of just-plain Bills.

Speedster Homer Jones, shackled in New York's first two National Football League games this season, snared five Fran Tarkenton passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns Sunday as the Giants drubbed the Washington Redskins 48-21 for their third consecutive victory.

The Smiths—295-pound Bubba and 250-pound Billy Ray of Baltimore's defensive line—set up three interceptions that were run back for touchdowns as the unbeaten Colts demolished the Pittsburgh Steelers 41-7.

At Green Bay, Bill Munson's second scoring strike to Billy Gambrell, a 12-yard flip with 1:55 to play, gave the Detroit Lions a 23-17 nod over the Packers, who have lost two in a row for a 1-2 mark—their worst start since 1958.

A week ago, Bill Brown scored two early touchdowns and rambled for 74 yards in Minnesota's 26-13 ambush of the defending NFL champs.

Elsewhere, the Dallas Cowboys crushed Philadelphia 45-13 for a 3-0 mark; the Los Angeles Rams cuffed Cleveland 24-6 for their third straight triumph; the Chicago Bears ended a two-game tailspin by trimming Minnesota 27-17; the St. Louis Cardinals nipped New Orleans 21-20 with a late rally and the San Francisco 49ers beat Atlanta 28-13.

In the American Football League it was Buffalo 37, New York 35; Boston 20, Denver 17; San Diego 31, Cincinnati 10 and Oakland 24, Houston 15. Kansas City wrecked Miami 48-3 in a Saturday night game.

Jones, who grabbed 49 passes for 1,209 yards and a league-leading 13 touchdowns last year, went into Sunday's game with three receptions and no scores. But he clicked with Tarkenton on an 82-yard bomb in the second period and a 56-yarder in the third.

Baltimore's Bobby Boyd, Charlie Stukes and Roy Hilton returned pass thefts for touchdowns, tying the single game NFL record.

Bubba Smith, tossed Steeler quarterbacks Kent Nix and Dick Shiner for three losses and deflected a Shiner pass that Hilton picked off for a 13-yard touchdown return. Billy Ray Smith got to the harassed Pittsburgh passers twice and hurried Nix into an interception returned 60 yards by Stukes for a score.

Green Bay grabbed a 10-0 lead over the Lions and was on the way to another touchdown in the second period. But defensive back Lem Barney led a Detroit

Bills Steal Passes to Upset Jets

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Most professional quarterbacks, when they've passed for four touchdowns and 280 yards, figure they've had a pretty good day.

But don't talk to Joe Namath leans punt launched a 21-point fourth quarter spree that carried the Cardinals past the Saints. Willis Crenshaw blasted one yard for the tying touchdown in the final period, killing off a desperate comeback by the Vikings. The Bears, however, lost two quarterbacks. Jack Concannon broke his left collarbone and Rudy Bukich suffered a possible shoulder separation.

Chuck LaFourrette's 86-yard scoring jaunt with a New Or-about it.

The New York Jets' signal-caller also had five intercepted, with three of them run back 198 yards for touchdowns in the Jets' 37-35 upset defeat by Buffalo Sunday.

It was New York's first loss, dropping the Jets into a share of first place in the American Football League's Eastern Division with Boston, and the first victory in four starts for Buffalo.

"Those interceptions murdered us," Namath said. "I'm the one to blame for 'em. This dumb guy sitting here. I just wasn't reacting properly."

In other AFL games Sunday, San Diego and Oakland remained tied at the top of the Western Division with 3-0 marks, San Diego beating Cincinnati 31-10 and Oakland taking Houston 24-15, while Boston edged Denver 20-17. Kansas City trampled Miami 48-3 Saturday night.

In the National Football League, Baltimore blasted Pittsburgh 41-7, Detroit upset Green Bay 23-17, San Francisco beat Atlanta 28-13, Chicago took Minnesota 27-17, Dallas romped over Philadelphia 45-13, Los Angeles defeated Cleveland 24-6, St. Louis held off New Orleans 21-20 and New York whipped Washington 48-21.

Tom Janik made the longest run with the steal of a Namath pass, 100 yards in the second period. But Joe came back for a 55-yard touchdown toss to Don Maynard to give the Jets a 21-20 halftime margin.

Bruce Alford kicked a field goal, shortly after the half for a 23-21 Buffalo lead, and the Bills put it out of reach with Butch Byrd returning an interception 53 yards and Booker Edgerson another 45 yards for fourth-period touchdowns and a 37-21 lead. New York made it close only on Namath's third touchdown pass to Sauer in the closing seconds.

Bob Scarpitto's league record 87-yard punt, which the Patriots recovered on the one when Denver fumbled it, helped Boston regain a share of the top spot in the East. Larry Garrison rammed over for the touchdown that broke a 10-10 tie with Denver and Gino Capelletti's fourth period field goal clinched it.

John Hadl passed for two touchdowns and scored two on runs of one and two yards in San Diego's easy triumph over Cincinnati. Both of Hadl's scoring passes went to Gary Garrison, the plays covering 10 and

Arkansas Romps Over Tulsa

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Every Razorback football fan is familiar with No. 44, David Dickey.

David Dickey — a good runner, fine pass receiver, senior leader and Arkansas' touchdown maker.

Now, add passer.

It was Dickey's passing off the halfback option play that sparked the Razorbacks to Saturday's 56-13 victory over Tulsa. Dickey got Arkansas on the scoreboard with a 61-yard bomb to Chuck Dicus and his 19-yard scoring toss to Dicus to put the Razorbacks safely in front 35-7.

"We felt the first pass would be open," Dickey said in the dressing room. "It was an option pass run. Dicus was open so all I had to do was throw it. The second pass was a sweep pass. Chuck did a good job getting open on it."

"On the first touchdown pass, the defensive halfback came up to stop the play and I made my break," Dicus said. "About the same thing happened on the second one. He hung on me a little longer before going up to stop the play. The whole play is designed that way."

Besides Dickey's long pass to Dicus, Bill Montgomery tossed a 80-yarder to Max Peacock and Jerry Moore returned an intercepted pass 30 yards for Arkansas' other two first half touchdowns.

Coach Frank Broyles Sunday explained the bombs to Dicus and Peacock. He said Tulsa had their safetymen up close in what amounted to a 6-5 goal-line defense.

"Whenever you tighten up in 19 yards.

Oakland remained unbeaten with second half touchdown drives of 80 and 75 yards against Houston. Daryle Lamina climaxed both drives with touchdown passes of nine yards to Warren Wells and Billy Cannon.

Kansas City scored the first four times it got the ball and Len Dawson threw three touchdown passes in the rout of Miami.

Ed Allison FOR State Land Commissioner

As an Arkansas taxpayer I am appalled at the corrupt manner in which my opponent has conducted the office of State Land Commissioner. This important office in our state government can serve as a means of earning tremendous revenue for the state. My opponent has been selling land privately to his political cronies instead of advertising it for bids as is required by law. One flagrant example is a sale of 152 acres to a personal friend for half a cent an acre with no other bids solicited.

It has been his policy to keep the operation of his office a well-guarded secret. It is little wonder that he lives in luxury on the small salary this office pays.

Oswald: "I wasn't much older than James O. Jr. when my father taught me the rule of 'eight ever—nine never' in deciding whether to finesse for the queen or to try to drop the lady."

Jim: "Ever and never are pretty strong words there. The actual rule is that when there is no information available, declarer should plan to finesse when he holds eight of the suit and to play to drop the queen when he holds nine."

Oswald: "The mathematical advantage of the drop play with nine is so slight that you should plan to finesse on many occasions."

Jim: "Today's hand is a good example. South has many problems with his four spade contract. His first is to draw trumps without losing a trick to the queen."

Oswald: "As anyone who looks at all the cards can see, a man who believes in 'nine never' would be set at his four spade contract."

Jim: "West's king of hearts holds the first trick. He continues with the queen. South trumps in dummy and should play dummy's king of spades. Then he leads another spade and should finesse against the queen. He knows that West started with a lot of hearts and therefore is likely to be short in spades."

Oswald: "He has something else going for him. If he does lose to the queen West will be on lead and may solve South's problems in the other suits."

Jim: "After the spade finesse works South draws the last trump and goes after diamonds. It doesn't matter how he plays the suit but he should guard against four diamonds in the East hand. Hence he plays a diamond to dummy's ace and leads the suit back to his own hand with the intention of playing the 10 unless an honor appears. The honor

IT TAKES ONE TO SHOW ONE—helicopters in flight, that is. Two familiar sights in New York City are the Statue of Liberty and the patrolling helicopters of the city's police department. This turbine-powered Bell Jet-Ranger is the first in the department's history to be equipped with pop-out floats, which fully inflate in 3½ seconds for water landings.

THE WELL CHILD

IQ Tests Should Show Inherent Capabilities

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Should my child have his intelligence quotient (IQ) tested? If done, were the results what I had expected? Am I glad it was done? These are some of the questions many parents are asking themselves. First designed in France by Alfred Binet, the test has been widely used since 1920 and has been subjected to many modifications. The test purports to show the age level a child's mental processes have achieved (mental age). When this is divided by his actual age and multiplied by 100 you have the IQ.

The test is supposed to show not what a child has learned, but what his inherent capabilities are. Many authorities now believe that it does not do this and that no test can accomplish this purpose. It has been shown, for example, that some children who are given the test every year at the start of school have become "test wise" and make scores that indicate a higher IQ than they actually possess.

On the other hand, a normally intelligent child may make a poor showing on the test because the test bores him, because the person giving the test has failed to gain his confidence or because he was feeling generally out of sorts when the test was given.

Often when the test is repeated on such a child after three to six months, the IQ will show a significant increase although there has been no change in the child's basic learning ability.

One good result of these tests has been to show that some pupils who appear to have a severe learning problem have a very high IQ and are simply too bored by school work that offers no challenge to want to put out their best effort. For this reason, it is a great mistake to use these tests to predict a child's potential.

Modern psychologists now believe that intelligence has many facets not necessarily related to one another. These include verbal, numerical, spatial and perceptual ability, memory and inductive reasoning. Each requires its own specific test. The important thing to determine is not so much how good your Frankie is as compared to Joey next door but what special aptitude your Frankie has.

Fish Kill
Short Cut? No!
Picture 'Bust'

Sunday's Texarkana Gazette reports tons of fish have been killed in Little River because of pollution with creosote and "penta" chemicals, the suspected source being the Dierks lumber-treating plant at DeQueen.

The newspaper quotes Ladd Davies, director of the Arkansas Pollution Commission, as saying: "I don't think there is any question that there was a discharge from one of the catchponds at the Dierks treatment plant at DeQueen."

But he added that the kill is over and the problem now is the restocking of Little River with fish. He said Dierks is co-operating fully with public officials and will pay the cost of restocking the river.

According to the Texarkana report the fish kill area extended from DeQueen to the U.S. highway 71 bridge over Little River. Some dead fish, however, were found in Millwood Lake, having been carried downstream by the river's current.

This is one of the inevitable hazards connected with wood industries operating along rivers. No one thinks for a minute Dierks intentionally poisoned Little River. I had occasion nearly 40 years ago to investigate a similar tragedy on Ouachita River.

I was editor of El Dorado Daily News when the circulation department brought me rumors that angry commercial fishermen were threatening to dynamite the natural gas line supplying International Paper Co.'s kraft mill upstream at Cullen, now a part of Camden. Tons of fish were being killed by waste from the paper mill drifting downstream.

I telephoned a warning to Mr. Cullen, founder and vice-president of the mill — later president of the entire International system. He told me it was simply a tragic accident. Paper mill chemical waste was run off into settling basins to be neutralized. But torrential rains flooded the basins and released the poison into the river.

Apparently Dierks has an identical case — 40 years later.

Speaking of rivers, I've got to confess that this "lost dog" driver returning from Hot Springs Sunday afternoon apparently came from Arkadelphia to Prescott without crossing Little Missouri River — which is a geographical impossibility. It happened this way:

L. Carter Johnson and I went to Hot Springs Saturday to deliver my boat to Midlin Marine (formerly Couch Marine) for an overhaul, spent the night at Majestic Hotel, and drove home Sunday. On the return trip I reminded Johnson that sidewalk report in Hope said Interstate 30 was actually finished across Little Missouri River, with a gravel road connecting to U.S. 67 west of the river.

So instead of leaving Interstate 30 and taking the marked, paved route on State 51 to U.S. 67 Johnson and I plowed straight ahead on I-30. My advice: Don't try it.

The pavement ended. Finally the dump ended. We doubled back to the second overpass, got on a rough country road that pointed south, finally emerging on U.S. 67 at a point which I recognized as being west of the river. Obviously we had crossed the Little Missouri without ever seeing it.

How is that possible? Well, I talked to Bill Routon Sunday night, and he said the timber is pretty dense where the I-30 bridge makes its crossing and I simply missed seeing the river. But I have a witness — Johnson — and he didn't see it either.

We picked up another car during our adventure, with two women and a child. They, too, turned back. They told us they had come over the route once before — but the exit roads change every week. My advice is, don't try it. Leave I-30 on the marked route of State 51, and enjoy paving and a sense of security all the way.

The Star staff takes every precaution against scrambling of pictures and captions in our illustrated pages — but the shop made a "bust" Friday. Two of the pictures in the layout on the art exhibit at the District Stock Show were transposed — and are being rerun correctly today. In five editions last week we

Extremists Destroy U.S., Says HHH

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey pictured the nation today as facing potential destruction from extremists of left and right and declared, "No democracy can, or should, stand for it."

The Democratic presidential candidate, who flew here Sunday after two noisy confrontations with organized hecklers in the Pacific Northwest, made it clear that his denunciation of extremism applied not only to them but to the forces of third party candidate George C. Wallace and to Negro revolutionaries.

Humphrey, faced with speech-disrupting shouts from some 200 young antiwar activists in Seattle Saturday night, tried to quiet them by letting one of their leaders address the clearly pro-Humphrey audience. The tactic failed, and, in the end, the demonstrators were ejected from the packed Civic Center arena, seating 5,000. More than a dozen resisted police who steered them out, with a brief but violent uproar ensuing.

Having experienced a noisy walkout by about 400 protesters at a similar party rally in Portland, Ore., the night before, Humphrey came here still searching for a way to deal with the demonstrators who have been plaguing him from coast to coast.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Mormon Tabernacle here, the vice president criticized both ends of the political spectrum.

"There are people today who made their basic appeal to the baser instincts—to fear, to racial prejudice, to escapism, to the darker side of the human character. They are dangerous."

These are the words he has used repeatedly to describe the Wallace campaign, though he did not name the former Alabama governor in his text.

Then Humphrey went on to decry youths "who are preaching the same doctrine of disorder and anarchy, and using the same totalitarian tactics of the street that brought Adolf Hitler to power."

And, finally, he dealt with those "who would destroy homes, businesses and lives, in their supposed zeal to correct injustices—the Negroes who

Coffee Drinkers Proved the Brew Didn't Help in Birth Control

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Drinking coffee is no longer regarded as a birth control help, but when the brew was first introduced to Europe in the 16th century it was feared that coffee made women barren and frigid. In Constantinople, a law was passed enabling husbands to forbid wifely use of the beverage.

Like to be comfy in bed? The prototype of a "dream bed" was recently displayed in Tokyo that was equipped with such cozy gadgets as a liquor cabinet, tape recorder, television screen and stereo set. Surely a bargain, at only $14,000.

Did you think the Sahara was the world's largest desert? No, the Antarctic continent is, notes the National Geographic Society. Its vast frozen wastes get only six inches of snow a year, equal to about half an inch of rain. This is less moisture than falls on Death Valley in California.

Wallace to Campaign in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — George C. Wallace pointed his presidential campaign at the North this week, aiming at industrial states and Democratic and Republican voters.

Advancemen for the American Independent party candidate arranged a noon-hour motorcade today in this Democratic stronghold and an evening speech in Cicero, an all-white working class suburb where he is popular.

The route for the procession was one mile of State Street, Chicago's main shopping area. The time and the downtown district long have been favored by visiting politicians because thousands of lunch-hour workers and shoppers are on the streets anyway.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, was seen by 400,000 persons, by police estimate, in the downtown area early this month.

Wallace, former governor of Alabama, planned to make a speech at Albright Field in Cicero, a southwestern suburb of 71,000.

An open-housing march there on Sept. 4, 1966, drew police, National Guardsmen and crowds of brick and bottle hurlers.

Not Likely Fortas Has a Chance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas' bruised and battered nomination to be chief justice is being given little chance for Senate confirmation, even by some supporters.

Sen. Joseph Tydings said Sunday an attempt to kill a filibuster against Fortas' appointment will fail when it comes up Tuesday.

"The filibuster will succeed" in keeping the Senate from voting on the nomination itself, the Maryland Democrat said.

Tydings' assessment came in a weekend of many gloomy developments for Fortas' supporters whose hopes were brightened by only a couple of items.

Albert Jenner, a Chicago attorney who heads the American Bar Association's committee that endorsed Fortas, said Sunday that "nothing relevant has come forth" requiring reconsideration of the endorsement.

He was responding to ABA President William Gossett's earlier statement that the committee acted without knowing all the facts, particularly some brought out in Senate Judiciary Committee hearings.

And a new organization, the Lawyers' Committee on Supreme Court Nominations, urged the Senate Sunday to stop a filibuster and let the matter go to the floor for a vote on the merits of the appointment.

"Nothing would more poorly serve our constitutional system than for the nominations to have earned the approval of the Senate majority, but to be thwarted because the majority is denied a chance to vote," the 162-man committee's statement said.

The only effect the statements by Jenner and the committee would likely have on the Senate floor might be to shore up support among those who have been wavering in their backing of the move to have Fortas succeed retiring Earl Warren.

An Associated Press survey last week showed anti-Fortas

Nixon Gives Details and Lashes Foe

By BILL BOYARSKY
Associated Press Writer
KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP)

Richard M. Nixon has entered a new phase of his presidential campaign, spelling out the details of his programs for the first time and intensifying the attack on his foes.

The Republican nominee announced Sunday his crime fighting proposals, calling for creation of a national academy of law enforcement to train local police and a high-level national crime fighting council.

The day before, he dealt with the problems of the aged, pledging cost-of-living increases in Social Security pensions.

In both statements, Nixon hit hard at his Democratic opponent, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. And he is now dealing openly in speeches with his other foe, George C. Wallace, the American Independent party candidate.

"We are picking up in both fire and substance," said an aide. "We are now filling out the programs. You'll also notice the tempo of the attack picking up."

In the future, he said, Nixon will be announcing the details of his proposals on taxes, inflation, veterans problems and other issues.

On Vietnam, the aide said, Nixon's plans "depend on what happens in the negotiations."

Nixon has criticized the conduct of the war but has declined to propose specific alternatives because he said it would hurt the peace talks in Paris.

The aide said Nixon, concerned about the dangers of "peaking" his political campaign too early, had talked purposely in general terms since he was nominated.

"If you look at any campaign, it's foolish to lay out all your programs in the first week," the aide said.

His new approach in a campaign trip begins today. It will take him into Michigan, Pennsylvania and New York. These are among the seven populous Northern states Nixon says he must carry to win the election.

It will also take him deep into the South, territory where his aides say Wallace is running el-

Congressional Reform Backers Are Fighting a Losing Battle

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — House members bent on reorganizing Congress and revamping the electoral process appear to be fighting a losing battle but they aren't giving in.

Three weeks ago, a small group of Republicans announced plans to create a parliamentarian's nightmare, hoping to embarrass Democratic leaders and revive congressional reorganization and election reform bills.

Both measures are now in the deep freeze reserved by the Democratic-controlled House Rules Committee for measures not favored by Speaker John W. McCormack and other leaders.

The reorganization bill was recommended by a bipartisan Senate-House committee and passed by the Senate about a year and a half ago.

It contains more than 100 changes to modernize and streamline Congress' structure and working methods, transfer power from the committee chairman to ordinary members, require open-door transaction of much business now conducted in secret, give minority members more staffing, and tighten lobbying regulations.

The election bill—also passed by the Senate—would, among other things, strengthen controls on campaign finances.

In their first attempt to disrupt the House Sept. 11 the Commission Case Before High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Supreme Court took under submission today a petition for rehearing on the case in which the high court ruled that third members of County Election Commissions must "represent" but need not be members of the majority party.

The petition was filed by Ronald A. May, a Little Rock attorney, on behalf of Frank Ellis of Little Rock and the Republican party.

In his brief, May said that "the proper interpretation of the statutes involved is a matter of the utmost importance in the administration and management of the upcoming elections."

May said the court's decision "does not follow the plain meaning of words used in the statute and leaves the state board of Election Commissioners with an unworkable standard in accomplishing their duty."

Battleship New Jersey Blasts Enemy

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The New

Jersey, the first American battleship to see action since the Korean War, entered the Vietnam conflict today by bombarding North Vietnamese positions in the northern half of the demilitarized zone.

The 56,000-ton vessel, three times as long as a football field, turned her 16-inch guns on enemy gun positions and bunkers seven miles north-northwest of the U.S. outpost of Con Thien.

The battleship hurled her 2,700-pound missiles into the enemy positions from its battle station in the Tonkin Gulf.

During her first mission, an aerial spotter reported that four automatic weapons sites that were firing at its aircraft were destroyed. Thirty yards of trenchline were collapsed and a road was cut in two places as the huge projectiles, which can penetrate 30 feet of reinforced concrete, slammed into the positions.

A Navy spokesman said that on her second mission of the day, the New Jersey destroyed an enemy artillery position and three bunkers and scattered supplies.

Apparently the New Jersey's chief mission will be to try to knock out heavily fortified North Vietnamese gun emplacements along the demilitarized zone that have withstood counterfire from the allies and aerial attacks.

These emplacements, some dug deep into hillsides, contain big Soviet-built artillery pieces which have been harassing allied camps along the frontier, including Con Thien, Gio Linh, and Dong Ha, headquarters of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division and a vital operational base for the DMZ.

The DMZ is 37 miles long, but most of the enemy's artillery emplacements fall within the 23-mile range of the New Jersey's nine 16-inch guns.

Within minutes the New Jersey can lay down a nine-gun broadside roughly equivalent to half the bomb load of a B52 bomber.

Closed Season in Local Game Refuge Areas

There will be no hunting of any kind in both the Howard County Wildlife Management area and the Pike-Howard County Wildlife Management area.

The two areas have served as game refuges for a number of years, and signs denoting the hunting ban are posted around the border of each area, the Game and Fish Commission telephoned the Star today noon.

The only hunting permitted at the Lafayette County Wildlife Management Area will be a fire-arms deer hunt on a permit basis. The area is closed to hunting deer — with bow and arrow. The Ouachita County Wildlife Management area is also closed to all types of hunting.

Hunting is now permitted on lands once leased as the Union-Columbia County hunting refuge. At one time the area was to be closed during the deer hunt this year, but will now be open any type of hunting during the regular open season.

LBJ Likely to Attend Dedication

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Officials are still anticipating that President Johnson will be on hand Friday to dedicate the David D. Terry Lock and Dam near here.

The dedication will mark a milestone in the development of navigation on the Arkansas River, a $1.2 billion project.

The ceremony will commemorate the opening of navigation on the river from the Mississippi River up to Little Rock.

Ceremonies will start at 11 a.m. with President Johnson being reserved a spot to make the principal address, according to Charles D. Maynard.

New standard equipment features are a 140 m.p.h. speedometer and a large face 0-8,000 r.p.m. tachometer. Leather seat trim is a new option in the AMX this year. New convenience items are featured in the 1969 AMX. Including a passenger "grab" handle above the glove box and a between-seats convenience tray. The AMX has a 290 cubic inch, four-barrel engine V-8 as standard with 343 and 390 cubic inch, four barrel V-8's optional. The '69 American Motors cars go on sale Tuesday, October 1.

Totally Restyled Ambassador Longer for 1969

American Motors offers a totally restyled Ambassador line for 1969. The line features seven models, including the luxurious and distinctive Ambassador SST 4-door sedan shown here. Wheelbase and overall length of the new Ambassador have been increased four inches, and the track widened to 60 inches. New custom velour seats and stainless steel side trim are a package option on the SST 4-door sedan. Interiors are extensively restyled. The Ambassador's air conditioning is standard. The new, higher capacity system includes additional vents and produces faster interior cooling.

Manual Three-on-Floor Is New for Javelin

American Motors has announced its sporty Javelin for 1969, featuring a new floor-mounted three-speed manual transmission with the standard 232 cubic inch six-cylinder engine or the optional 290 cubic inch two-barrel V-8. New styling highlights for the Javelin include a new grille featuring a

Tech, State Victorious in AIC Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nobody in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference is going to concede the winner of Saturday's Arkansas Tech-Henderson contest the AIC title, but

"From the way the conference started out, the winner will have things in his favor," says Henderson coach Clyde Berry.

Berry was talking about Tech's 17-0 victory over Arkansas A&M and State College of Arkansas' 10-7 victory over Ouachita Baptist University.

"A&M won the conference last year and, on paper, Ouachita looked stronger than anybody," Berry said.

Berry, not unexpectedly, had nothing but compliments for the unbeaten Wonder Boys.

"They've been real impressive, both offensively and defensively," he said. "They're set. They've got outstanding personnel this year."

One of the Tech ringleaders is quarterback Leon Anderson who tossed an 84-yard bomb to Don Thone Saturday at Monticello.

"We feel like that Anderson, mechanically, is the soundest quarterback that has been in the league for several years," Berry said. "We think he keeps his composure and can play under pressure."

Boston Star Wins in Bat Contest

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Boston star Carl Yastrzemski left the park with the dubious distinction of winning a major league batting title with a record low average. Oakland Manager Bob Kennedy left the park without a job.

Both developments occurred Sunday as the American League closed its regular season.

Yastrzemski went 0-for-5 in Boston's 4-3 loss to the New York Yankees and unofficially won his third American League batting championship with a .301 average. The previous low was .306 by Elmer Flick of Cleveland in 1905.

Kennedy, who guided the Athletics to an 82-80 record, their best since 1955, watched his team drop out of a fifth-place tie with the Yankees by losing 4-3 to Minnesota, then was fired.

Owner Charles Finley named Hank Bauer, fired earlier in the season by Baltimore, to replace Kennedy.

In other on-the-field developments in the American League Sunday, Washington edged pennant-winning Detroit 3-2 and the Chicago White Sox nipped California 7-6. Baltimore and Cleveland ended the season last Friday.

First-place St. Louis trounced Houston 11-1, Cincinnati blanked San Francisco 3-0, Philadelphia pounded the New York Mets 10-3, Atlanta shaded Los Angeles 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs downed Pittsburgh 5-4 in the National League.

Boston could have used some hitting from Yastrzemski, who entered the game at .303 with a chance to climb to or above .306. The loss dropped the Red Sox into fourth place behind Cleveland.

New York gained its victory and first first-division finish since they won the pennant in 1964 with a three-run eighth-inning rally sparked by Bill Robinson's two-run double.

Washington tied Detroit on Frank Coggins' two-out, two-run single in the fourth and then won it in the ninth when Gary Holman scored from third as second baseman Dick McAuliffe bobbled pinch hitter Ed Stroud's grounder.

Purdue Slaps Down Notre Dame 37-22

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
With second-ranked Notre Dame out of the way, Purdue figures it still has to win a few more poll bowls before it gets to the Rose Bowl and the national championship of college football.

"We've still got Ohio State and Minnesota and I think those two teams are comparable to Notre Dame," said Boilermakers' All-American Leroy Keyes when asked if No. 1 Purdue's 37-22 victory over Notre Dame Saturday meant the national title.

Keyes' cautions optimism probably is based on the memory of last year when Purdue also beat the powerful Irish, only to lose to Oregon State and Indiana and finish ninth and watched the Rose Bowl on television.

Along with Minnesota, ranked 17th before a 17-14 loss to ninth-ranked Nebraska, and 11th-rated Ohio State, the Boilermakers also have Indiana and Michigan State, no softies.

Purdue, 2-0, is expected to have a tune up Saturday against Northwestern before the battle with Ohio State, which crushed SMU 34-14.

Southern California, No. 3 and likely to replace Notre Dame in the runnerup spot after a 24-7 victory over Northwestern, will be waiting for Purdue to slip, but the Trojans expect trouble of their own.

Southern Cal must entertain rugged Miami, Fla., which probably improved its No. 15 ranking with a 10-7 triumph over always tough Georgia Tech. That might be the only clash between top 20 teams this weekend after three of them last Saturday.

Joining Notre Dame and Minnesota among the fallen was 13th-ranked Indiana, which fell to Kansas, No. 12, 38-20, Texas, No. 6, and Wyoming, No. 20, were the other losers as the Longhorns were upset by Texas Tech 31-22, and the Cowboys dropped before Air Force 10-3.

The rest of the Top Ten got by —barely, at times—as Penn State, No. 4, overcame Kansas State 25-9; Florida, No. 5, nudged Florida State 9-3; Alabama, No. 7, struggled past Southern Mississippi 17-14, and UCLA, No. 8, bounced Washington State 31-21. Houston, No. 10, was idle.

Alabama and UCLA, with USC, are likely to have the most difficult time staying unbeaten this weekend with games against Mississippi and Syracuse, respectively.

Keyes led the Boilermakers by Notre Dame for the third time in five years by running 16 and 17 yards for touchdowns and throwing 17 to Bob Dillingham for another. Keyes ran for 99 yards in 15 carries and Dillingham tied a school record with 11 receptions.

Three touchdowns within 3½ minutes of the second period put Purdue ahead 23-7, and that grew to 37-14 before Terry Hanratty brought Notre Dame back.

Popular Rambler Retains Compact Dimensions

American Motors' 1969 Rambler passenger car series retains its compact body dimensions in keeping with the policy of maintaining the design continuity of the popular, low-price line. Numerous mechanical improvements, common to all 1969 American Motors cars, have been incorporated in the Rambler (formerly Rambler American). These include a new accelerator cable linkage and suspended accelerator pedal, new "Clear-Power 24" battery, and parking lights which remain on with headlights. Shown is the top-of-line Rambler Rogue 2-door hardtop, one of five models offered in the series.

Diamonds Are No Match for Orlando

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — The Orlando Panthers whipped the Arkansas Diamonds 55-17 Saturday in a Continental Football League game.

The first scoring play of the game was a pass from Orlando quarterback Don Jonas to flanker Tom Bland for 99 yards. Jonas hit Bland for two more touchdown tosses and hit running back Fred Miller for a fourth score. It was the fifth straight victory for Orlando.

AMX

There was a time when all we made were Ramblers.

And, those Ramblers made our image. With the predictable result that we got a reputation for building dependable, little cars that were high on economy and low on sex appeal.

We still make the Rambler. It's a smarter buy than it ever was. But it's no Javelin.

When American Motors can build a hot, sporty car that out-sports the other sporty cars, that's news.

So far, more than 45,000 sporty-car drivers have decided that the Javelin is a better car for the money.

The Ambassador SST 4-door sedan is our luxury car. It comes with standard air-conditioning, standard V-8, standard automatic transmission, optional velour seats, a long, long wheelbase for an elegant limousine ride, and an astonishingly low price for the package.

We also make the Rebel.

The Rebel is the family car that dared to cross the treacherous Baja peninsula. Most of the specially equipped cars that start this trip never finish. The Rebel did.

But, if anything changes our image, it will be the AMX, our two-seater sports car.

The AMX, specially equipped and modified, has set 106 American, national and international speed records.

At this point, it looks like our image will never survive.

THE GOP Money Machine Works Smoothly

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — When Richard M. Nixon was nominated for president, Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss proudly presented him with $1 million and a smoothly functioning campaign organization.

When Lawrence F. O'Brien was installed by Hubert H. Humphrey as both campaign manager and chairman of the Democratic National Committee, he found what he terms "a modest deficit."

In addition, the Democratic organization was in disarray.

Now, with five weeks to go until election day, O'Brien says that his organization is ready. But "we have nowhere near the financial resources that we would like to have," adding that, in this regard, "I envy Ray Bliss."

O'Brien's equipment features a speedometer and a large tachometer. Leather straps option in the AMX thins out by 4-ties on the more tra-pattern of a personalization, operating out of New York and headed by John Mitchell.

Mitchell and Bliss meet each week to coordinate. But in over-all charge is the candidate himself.

For the Democrats, O'Brien functions as both head of the party and of Humphrey's own drive.

Neither O'Brien nor Bliss would estimate in interviews what the two parties plan to spend on the presidential and congressional races.

A Republican source said, however, his party will spend at least $20 million.

One result of the money situation is that the GOP advertising campaign is well ahead.

Shortly after Nixon's nomination, television commercials featuring excerpts from his acceptance speech began to appear.

But the first Humphrey television spot, about Medicare, went on the air only last week.

As a result, the Democrats have been trying "to secure as much free television time as we can," O'Brien says, by having Humphrey appear on such programs as late evening talk programs and question-and-answer sessions that are carried as a public service.

On the organizational side, the Republicans are operating mainly through the regular state units.

The Democrats, however, have resorted to the technique employed by John F. Kennedy in 1960 of dispatching outside coordinators into states to work with the regular party people.

O'Brien says that this effort is even ahead of 1960. But the need is greater.

"There has been a slackening off of Democratic party activity in the past two years," O'Brien says, attributing it to concentration on legislative and administrative activities in Washington.

Bliss' biggest feat is that overconfidence will bring a repetition of 1948 when so many Republicans were sure Thomas E.
Dewey would defeat Harry S.
Truman that "they thought their vote wasn't needed."

group—Republicans, primarily, but also a few Democrats—prevented the body from doing anything except answer endless roll calls and listen to a reading of the previous day's proceedings for 2½ hours.

Last Thursday, Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma asked the House to give its consent to permit the calling up of two bills this week under the general rules. The bills—concerning older Americans and federal banks—would not have to go to Rules Committee if there were no objections.

Rep. Donald Rumsfeld, R-Ill., objected.

"It seems unfortunate that the gentlemen from Oklahoma is not asking unanimous consent to bring one of those two bills (legislative and electoral reform) to the floor of the House. We have not been meeting every day. We have had plenty of time for the consideration of these pieces of legislation," Rumsfeld said.

Replied Albert: "Of course, the gentleman knows the circumstances are entirely different. Almost every week we do take up by unanimous consent certain bills that are not contested and on which there is general agreement."

Rumsfeld attempted to call up the two bills he favors under unanimous consent but Speaker McCormack said he was not recognized for that purpose.

the GOP nominee.

Nixon will be questioned by a panel of Southerners selected by his staff on a regional telecast in Atlanta, Ga., Thursday night, then make a speech in Spartanburg, S.C.

Nixon aides said the lack of a strong grassroots GOP organization in both states is helping Wallace. Humphrey, they said, is running third.

But in South Carolina, they are counting heavily on the personal popularity of Republican Sen. Strom Thurmond to carry the state for Nixon.

Nixon disclosed his anticrime program in a radio speech on the Mutual network Sunday, the final day of a two-day vacation in this resort near Miami.

"Under the stewardship of the present administration," he said, "crime and violence have skyrocketed in America."

He attacked Humphrey's recent white paper on crime, saying it advocated programs that were "already in the law." "How do we expect him to know what still has to be done when he doesn't know what already has been done?" asked Nixon.

Humphrey proposed massive

Arsonists Try to Destroy Training Base

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Arsonists who tried to destroy the Naval and Marine Corps training center in Eugene caused $106,000 damage Sunday.

No one was hurt, but at least three explosions about 1 a.m. wrecked a 12-ton crane with a 35-foot boom, two large bulldozers, four dump trucks and a truck used to carry personnel.

Two unlighted gasoline bombs were found in the main building.
Investigators said the arsonists hooked powder fuses to plastic sandwich bags filled with gasoline. These devices were placed near diesel fuel and gasoline that was spread in a hallway of one wing of the main building.

The investigators found the same type of bombs attached to a one-story storage garage behind the main building.

The equipment was parked in a compound surrounded by an eight-foot wire fence.

forces had enough strength to keep a filibuster going, and that was before Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he had changed his mind and would vote against limiting debate.

In fact, Dirksen gave what could be a mortal wound to Fortas' chances when he said Friday he might not even support the appointment as he first said he would.

Dirksen indicated he wasn't sure he could back Fortas because of developments that occurred since his earlier endorsement, developments that involved the justice "in the sense that a decision of the court in which he participated is involved."

This decision, it was understood, prohibited prosecutors from automatically excluding from capital punishment cases, jurors who express opposition to the death penalty.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
If he does really think that there is no distinction between virtue and vice, when he leaves our houses let us count our spoons. — Johnson said it.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS
Women's Day will be observed at Bethel A.M.E. Church Sunday October 6. A special program has been planned for 3 p. m., featuring a panel discussion.
Mrs. Velma Muldrew is chairman; Rev. J. E. Hughes is the minister.

COMING AND GOING
Mrs. Parthenia Bowles has returned home after spending three weeks in Los Angeles, Calif., with her children.

While she was there, her son Willie C. Bowles suffered an accident resulting in the amputation of his right hand. The hand was crushed in a machine on his job at North American Aircraft.

BLESSED EVENT
Mr. and Mrs. James O. Dudley of Bessemer, Alabama an-problems."

These factions, said Humphrey, "all share a basic disdain for the democratic process."
... No democracy can, or should, stand for it."

He said the presidential campaign "will decide whether the extremists will succeed, whether the voices of hate, or prejudice and division will drive out the forces of opportunity, progress and justice." He concluded that "America shall prevail."

He barely mentioned his Republican opponent, Richard M.
Nixon, in his text.

Tonight Humphrey will deliver his first nationally televised speech of the campaign, described as "a major foreign policy statement, including Vietnam." The Democratic party has purchased 30 minutes of prime time on all television stations of the National Broadcasting Co.—at 7:30 p.m., locally except in the Central Time Zone, when it will be 6:30 p.m.

Humphrey spent most of Sunday in Seattle, resting, reading and conferring with advisers, including his campaign manager, Lawrence F. O'Brien.

He also issued a formal statement proposing "a new and basic right for every American: the right to live above the poverty level." He promised to give early and serious consideration to a suggestion that the federal government devise "a system of supplementary income maintenance which assures that no American's income falls below
the poverty level."
